

Mere Skate Park

The Mere Skatepark has now passed inspection and is open for use which is great timing as the youngsters on school holidays are already enjoying it and having a great time. I know its boring, but please note the Rules & Regulations – we haven't seen many users wearing any safety equipment yet and the concrete surface is not going to be very merciful when fallen on from a great height!

